Making Life Better for Orphans, At-risk Children and Families

March 15, 2010

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been my privilege to meet Becky Wright, to hear her story of adoption in her own family and to see her passion for birth families, adoptive families and children. She is a true heroine of our day in her untiring effort to remind all of us that all children need permanent, loving families.

When Becky's music and love for adoption blends together to proclaim what God is doing in the lives of so many, one has to know that this talent needs to be taken seriously. Her song, "Thank You for Giving Me A Chance", is incredible in sound and message and such can be said for all of her lyrics and music well-performed from the heart of a mother who not only loves her own children, but the children of the world!

We can rejoice in the thrill that sweeps through us as we listen to the essence of Becky's music. Her message makes it easy to understand God's adoption plan for each of us as He invites us to be a part of His family, to be secure in His Grace, and to feel forever loved and wanted by our Heavenly Father.

Sincerely,

Deniese M. Dillon
